Another slot in the journey of time has been filed away. Ten years have passed, witnessing a kaleidoscope of people, progress, and change. Just as time influences history, years affect the school.

A new decade is like a freshly ploughed field. The rich, dark soil promises a better growth of faith and communication. The guiding rays of understanding nourish the staff of life — the students. The young plant a school nourishes is carefully prepared for survival in the world of the future.

Observe the newly planted crop today while you examine these pages . . .

ADMINISTRATION

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence ends.

Mr. Chaffee, Principal, and his Secretary, Mrs. Babcock

Early morning finds our principal preparing for his appointed conferences. By discussing problems and guiding students, Mr. Chaffee hopes to develop a plentiful supply of active world citizens. This challenge will become a reality when both principal and student body work together as a unit.

Busy next-door-neighbor, Mr. Brenner, checks absentee slips at the clinic door. The full-time job as school disciplinarian is also shouldered by Mr. Brenner.

This team works steadily for the benefit of the community as they skillfully direct school affairs.

Mrs. Wagner, assisting a student

Mr. Brenner, Vice-principal

An assembly of eight people make the Highland district schools run smoothly and efficiently. During their monthly conferences they discuss and plan the district's budget and policies.

The meetings are led by Board President Robert S. Schmelzer. Vice-president, Mrs. Josephine Becks, Clerk, Mrs. Evelyn Brunskill, William H. Kelly, Jr., Thomas T. Thompson, and John A. Wiszt make the set nearly complete.

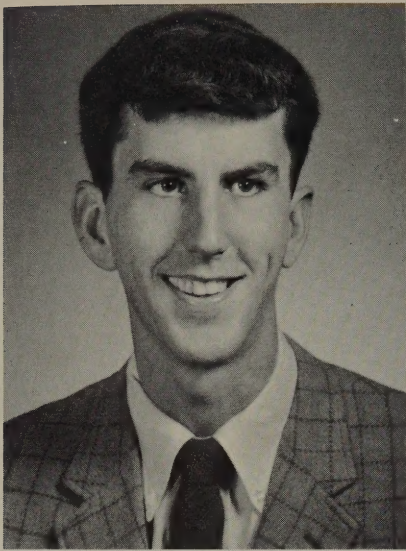

The remaining member is the director of the Highland district schools, Superintendent Lewin O. Vermillion. As general spokesman he manages a very busy schedule. This is accomplished with the artful planning of his secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lola Webster.

As the basis of our school district, these people skillfully serve the community and its educational system.

LIBRARY AND GUIDANCE

The school library is used by students for both reference and pleasure reading. Students working on special assignments and reports use the library extensively to obtain information on specific subjects. Other students take out an assortment of fiction and non-fiction for leisure reading and studying.

The atmosphere in the library is one of quiet for studying or reading, and Mrs. South and her assistants keep it this way by cheerfully supervising and assisting the students.

The guidance counselors work in many ways to serve the students. They administer testing programs, counsel, and assist in educational and occupational planning. Mrs. Myers, head guidance counselor, and her assistant, Mr. Burch, manage busy schedules as advisors. Their assistants aid them by running errands and filing.

The guidance office gives uncertain students answers to their problems and helps others to plan for their careers and their future.

ACADEMICS

Who so neglects learning in his youth, loses the past and is dead for the future.

SHOP

The industrial arts department is geared toward those students wishing to work in industry. They learn rewarding and necessary skills in the shop and are able to put them to use for the school. For example, the printing classes often print programs and newsletters. Among the courses offered at Highland are electronics, mechanical drawing, wood working, auto service, and metals.

HOME EC

The homemaking class has become a place of fashion adventure, delicious aromas, and fun. All phases of home economics and consumer education are covered in the extensive program.

A noticeable increase in classroom sizes prompts Mrs. Tramonte to add that these girls have plenty of zip, and show a great potential for the future.

OFFICE PRACTICE

The objective of the secretarial department is to prepare students for future jobs as office workers. Each day Miss Carman presents a realistic office situation in class like those the girls will face some day as secretaries. Among the various activities is the use of office machinery. Each girl has an opportunity to use the dictaphones, mimeograph, and calculator. This year new electric typewriters were purchased. The girls also practice the necessary skills, shorthand and typing. This course is an important part of our vocational program and helps prepare tomorrow's secretaries for their careers.

CHEMISTRY AND BIOLOGY

The major aim of biology and chemistry classes is to encourage a friendly atmosphere for learning about the environment. The tremendous emphasis today's people place on survival causes students to strive for a better understanding of the entire situation.

Each class experiment and lecture concerns the study of living things and materials in the earth and its atmosphere. A group discussion of class experiments follows with added observations and opinions. The final result is a complete evaluation that can be used as a building block for more complex study.

Other lessons are approached as the class and Mr. Temple together venture into the exciting chapters of today's world.

The Senior Choir is an organization under the direction of Mr. Ruddock whose goal is to increase musical interest and talent at Highland. The first performance of the year for the choir was the Inland Conference Choral Festival. The Christmas concert followed soon afterwards with the group singing "The Night before Christmas" and "Sleigh Bells." In early February talented ensembles and soloists attended the County Solo and Ensemble Contest, bringing back with them a number of coveted superiors. Some of these performers advanced to the state level and received high awards.

The Spring Concert is probably the highlight of the year for the musical groups. The choir intermingled old favorites with the popular songs of the year. The delightful program ended with the stirring "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The last act of the choir is to sing at the Baccalaureate Services each year for the seniors. The graduating seniors are joined by the new members in a final performance together.

SENIOR CHOIR MIXED ENSEMBLE — First Row: J. Wilcox, D. Thompson, V. Schreiner, J. Roach, M. Napier, M. Chodera. Second Row: S. Adams, J. Cox, D. Van Deusen, B. Young, G. Sir Louis, R. Hanna.

ACCOMPANISTS — First Row: J. Baker, M. Napier, J. Zumbrunnen, S. Botz. Second Row: J. Malek, J. Roach, C. Harrison.

Simmons, P. Napier, R. Wagar, B. Harvey, B. Lorman, T. Anderson, D. Hughes, B. Nolan, J. Coddling, J. Zumbrunnen, B. Peytosh, B. Chaffee.

Feeling groovy? Judging by their voices and enthusiasm the General Mixed chorus, Girls' Glee, and Men's Glee are taking heed of the lyrics to the "29th Street Bridge Song." The Freshmen and Sophomores in the General Mixed Chorus still believe in magic as testified by "Puff, the Magic Dragon." While the Men's Glee vocalize in tunes of a harder nature as typified in "Ride the Chariot" and "Winter Wonderland." The three part Girls' Glee used in their format the contemporary and meaningful "My Way" and the light-hearted "Little Bird." These multi-talented groups perform at the Christmas and Spring Concerts not only as groups, but also with selected members in ensembles.

GIRLS' GLEE — Front Row: B. Brown, G. Depas, L. Alber, C. Decker, N. Cook, D. Winters, G. Repp, D. Kennedy, N. Sullivan, R. Burkhead, A. Campbell, E. Brauckmann, L. Perkins, S. Harmon, S. Botz. # ART

Pottery, jewelry, macrame, needlecraft, and painting are only a few of the many fields in which Mrs. Melrose's art students excel. The art classes are known for their delightful and colorful displays on several mediums in the showcase, particularly the decorative Christmas projects. Every year several of the talented students represent Highland in regional art contests and bring home the coveted gold keys.

MAJORETTES

MAJORETTES: N. Anderson, K. Grimm, M. Napier, Head Majorette-Debbie Nagy, L. Alber, B. SirLouis, E. Duncan.

I KNOW YOU'LL BE THIS ON PAGE SO DON'T WORRY AND JUST

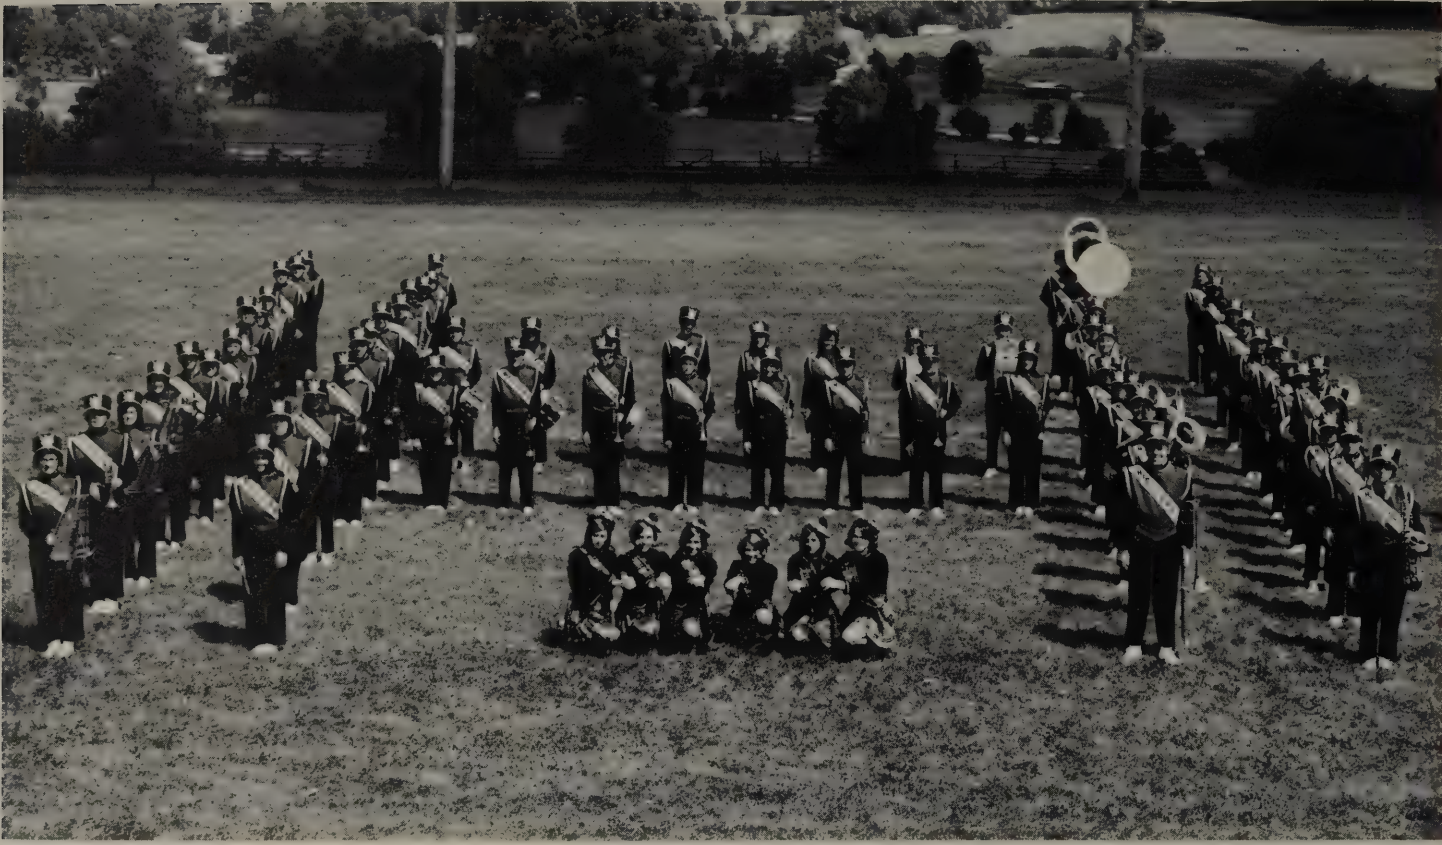

Adding color and zest to the band's performances are the Highland majorettes. They, too, must practice long hours to perfect their dance and twirling routines, including the difficult aerals. The majorettes not only perform to the band's music but they also successfully perform at contests. This year the girls performed in their new green-sequined uniforms to dance routines by Diane Jagger.

The two-year-old work-study program represents a recent addition in the students' curriculum. This project is designed to help students discover and use their vocational skills in community jobs.

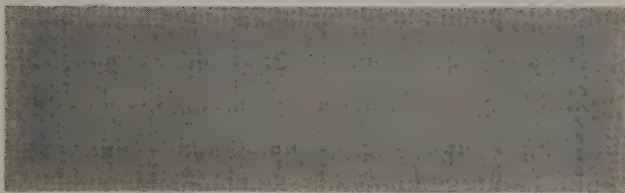

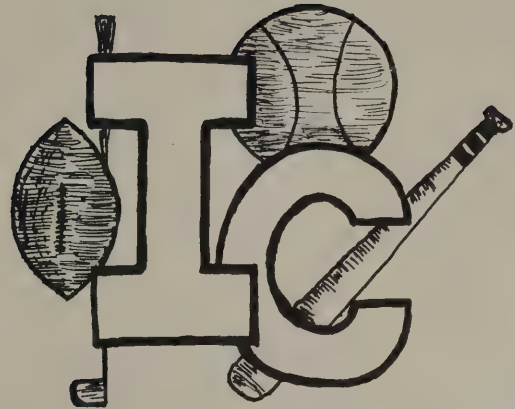

The main objectives of the club are to develop a respect for education's role in job skills and to reach an understanding of the individual's responsibilities in his society. Club members have participated in a colorful procession of soc-hops, car washes, club refreshment sales, and bowling tournaments.

The highlight of the year is the Employer-Employee Banquet. This event is designed to honor outstanding student employees and their employers. Trophies, certificates and a festive dinner climax this gala occasion.

A co-ordinated combination of lay-ups, dribbles, passes, hooks, and field goals make basketball an exciting sport. Many shots during the season thrilled the fans as the Hornets threatened their tough opponents.

Highland's players and coaches worked long hours to mold the young group into a team. Most of the team will be returning next year, and under the coaching of Mr. Secrest, Mr. Cranston, and Mr. Wolfe the 1972 season will be a victorious one.

The student body was behind the wrestlers and their coaches, Mr. Bryson and Mr. Currens, as they began their ascent to third place at state. Eleven grapplers passed the sectional tournament tests to breeze by the other teams. Only Oberlin was stronger at the district tournament as four of our wrestlers advanced to state.

The returning state champ, Don Tomko, again had no problems at the Arena. Tom Cavanaugh also went all the way to grasp the coveted position of state champion.

This year's team has certainly been one the student body can be proud to have known!

DONKEY BASKET- BALL???

This year's donkey basketball game was spiced with hilarious antics by the teachers, students, and ref. In a fun-filled Varsity H versus Faculty game, some new members to the fascinating game were given their inductions.

During half-time, the referee and his dog performed some amazing stunts while the players discussed strategies and the exhausted donkeys rested for an exciting second half.

Congratulations are due to the teams for a game well-played!

Got the hang of it now!

PEP RALLY

All the enthusiasm and spirit of our proud student body is put to the test at each thrilling pep rally. Team spirit and class loyalty are the incentives of each class in competition for the spirit stick. The new soc-it-to-'em soul cheers, with the accompaniment of our pep band, have made the pep rallies this year the most exciting ones that H.H.S. has seen in a long time.

CHEERLEADERS

Each spring eleven girls are selected for the Varsity and Junior Varsity squads and introduced to the student body by their fine advisor, Mrs. Ramey. From that point on, those girls work and practice diligently.

Last summer the girls attended a cheerleading clinic at Muskingum College. There, they learned the popular soul

Student Council has worked for many reforms to improve the school during its lifetime at Highland. Among the accomplishments realized this year were the sponsoring of the Christmas dance, making vending machines available to the student body, selling ice cream at the noon hour, working on the Homecoming dance and festivities, attending workshops, and opening a spring Carnival. Committees and councils meet during and after school under the direction of Mrs. Myers to try to solve the problems facing the students and the school. It is the council's hope that the lines of communication between the students and the administration may be developed into strong bonds.

G. A. A.

Fun and pleasure are the passwords of the Girls' Athletic Association. In the fall the girls and their dates attended the annual hayride. Winter activities included a bowling league and an inter-scholastic girls' basketball team. Intra-mural baseball and the annual mother-daughter banquet complete the year's agenda.

In addition to the activities provided by the club for its members, the G.A.A. also donated a mini-tramp and gymnastic belts to the girls' physical education classes. Those two popular pieces of equipment quickly added more enjoyment to the class.

Under the leadership of Miss Gowe, this club has certainly achieved its purpose of promoting fun for girls through sports.

Bringing girls into fellowship with one another and the world is the aim of the Y.W.C.A. and its branch, Y-Teens. Highland's chapter, under the guidance of Mrs. Neff, sponsored a soc-hop and bake sale and assisted in decorating the Medina Hospital at Christmas and hanging the greens in Medina Square. Other activities included slumber parties, swimming at Copley, and selling Highland wind-breakers.

Team member dribbles in for a lay-up.

Youth for Christ is an organization devoted to bringing Christ into the school. The Highland chapter, led by Mr. Brenner, has had several guest speakers on various questions about religion in relation to the world. Discussions and movies fill out the programs.

Some members took part in the walk-a-thon, a contest for raising money for a recreational center. Another project was the collection for penny queen. Probably the most popular activity was the cake-eating contest which involved teachers and students alike.

"Are you our new teacher?" often greets F.T.A.'s neophytes to the teaching profession. These student teachers instruct pupils at levels from elementary to high school to learn more about their anticipated careers in education. Many of the members attended the informative field trip and lectures about the college of education at Akron University. The Future

Teachers of America also supports an Indian girl's high school education.

Guided by Mrs. Ramey, our local chapter of the F.T.A. has proved to be a worthwhile organization for providing students with beginning teaching opportunities.

The Future Homemakers of America are enthusiastic and inventive girls who enjoy having fun and helping others. These girls have proved their talents by sponsoring a Mother and Daughter supper, providing delicious cookies at the Christmas dance, and holding a Mardi Gras for the F.H.A. members and their guests.

The club officers and their advisor Mrs. Tramonte gladly accept the responsibility of guidance for such a promising organization. This combination of fine leadership and member participation certainly marks the F.H.A. club as one with capability and warm hospitality.

F.H.A. OFFICERS — L. Carl, Student Teacher; T. Burkhead, Treas.; C. Oberst, Second V.P.; D. Csontos, Sec.; V. Leonhardt, Pres.; D. Laurie, First V.P.; Mrs. Tramonte, Advisor.

STUDENT HELP

LIBRARY HELP — B. Baker, J. Kephart, S. Sherman, L. McGill, R. Smith, G. Hamilton, C. Geib, J. Kruescher.

GUIDANCE OFFICE ASSISTANTS — First Row: B. Hammond, P. Chambers, J. Gathagan, D. Brantner. Second Row: N. Hirsch, B. Smouse, M. Mendoza, D. West.

OFFICE HELP — L. Roach, M. Brauckmann, C. Pribish

Students gain experience and teachers acquire assistance from the many service groups within the school.

The library help assist Mrs. South by stamping books and returning them to the proper shelf.

Guidance and office assistants run errands, file papers and do other secretarial duties.

The audio-visual club aids teachers by running movie projectors, record players, and overhead projectors. The group is also responsible for the storage and care of these valuable teaching aids.

The departments which receive the students' assistance appreciate these volunteers and the services they perform.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB — J. Derhammer, J. Wise, R. Wagar, K. Ewing.

SKI CLUB

The two-year old Ski Club is a refuge for the addicts of the ski slope. These active students and their advisor, Miss Gowe, retreat to Boston Mills each snowy Wednesday to receive lessons in the sport and practice their style. Newcomers to the slopes experience some staggering moments as they gain confidence and experience. Some skiers prefer the ski lift to the slopes their first time out, but by the end of the season everyone has fallen for the powdered hills.

SKI CLUB OFFICERS — Miss Gowe, Advisor; V. Tramonte, V.P.; L. Adams, Pres.; D. Searles, Sec.; C. Pfister, Treas.

SKI CLUB — First Row: R. Whitam, J. Hallinger, D. Bash, K. Zgrabik, C. Toth, L. Jacobson, N. Anderson, L. Adams, Miss Gowe. Second Row: D. Aring, D. Searles, C. Bruegman, S. Frase, D. Pelot, B. Drews, K. Burkhardt, D. Ford, K. Polland, M. Brackmann, L. Stiles. Third Row: M. Thompson, V. Tra-

Harvey, B. Chaffee, B. Lorman, R. Brown, C. Simmons, B. Smith, J. Zumbrunnen, G. SirLouis, R. Karwoski, M. Fulton.

A fiesta atmosphere permeates the activities of the Spanish Club guided by advisor Mrs. Ring. They not only held a Christmas fiesta complete with traditional pinata, but they also sponsored a Mexican dinner with the Buckeye Spanish Club.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS — N. Lorman, Vice President; L. Schreiner, President; J. Zumbrunnen, Treasurer; D. Chambers, Secretary; Mrs. Ring, Advisor.

With advisor Mr. Temple, the Science Club promotes scientific interest. In keeping with this goal, they visited the N.A.S.A. Lewis Research Center and sponsored the annual science fair.

The Auto Club has not only furthered their own goals but has also helped the school as a whole with their project of putting gravel in the back of the school and servicing students' cars.

SCIENCE AND AUTO CLUBS

"Louder upstage!" is one technical term shouted many times as the Drama Club gave instructions to performers in the Talent Show. Under the leadership of Miss Chiaramonte, the club presented a fine show to its audience.

Another activity in which many club members were able to participate was the Kent State University workshop. Students learned more about the techniques of acting from experienced actors.

In the future the club hopes to perform a few short plays and attend others. Students interested in acting join the club to learn more about drama and to gain experience in the field.

DRAMA CLUB OFFICERS — M. A. Chodera, Pres.; S. Papp, V.P.; Miss Chiaramonte, Advisor; M. Brauckmann, Sec.; M. Mendoza, Treas.

ANNUAL STAFF

YEARBOOK STAFF OFFICERS — V. Schreiner, Editor; M. Siegfried, Advertising Editor; Mrs. Glick, Advisor; L. Schreiner, Copy Editor; I. Juris, Art Editor; M. Gaj, Business Manager.

The Highland annual staff is a closely-knit organization whose main goal is to present an accurate account of the school year's activities.

The club in operation can be compared to a wheel. The head editor is the hub, a center of advice and guidance. From the hub radiate the several spokes. These spokes are the sub-editors in divisions of art, copy, advertizing, and business. The rim of the wheel is made of numerous workers whose job is to contribute their share of work and information about various clubs, sports, and people. With the aid of the advisor, Mrs. Glick, the result is a wheel running on a smooth and steady path.

THE STINGER NEWSPAPER STAFF

NEWSPAPER STAFF — Seated: G. Sir Louis, Asst. Editor; J. Frederick, Editor.
Standing: M. A. Russell, Asst. Editor; L. Lonsbury, Miss Carman, Advisor; C. Bruegman.

The members of the Newspaper Staff are students interested in journalism as a future vocation or hobby. They hope to provide a well-rounded summary of student activities and concerns within the school. Other objectives are to promote school spirit, encourage individuals to express their opinions, and inform the student body about school events and activities. The Gowe Printing Company in Medina assists the staff by printing their issues.

Miss Carman, the advisor, and the editor, Jane Frederick work together to co-ordinate the articles which the staff members submit to produce a complete chronicle of school events.

NEWSPAPER STAFF — First Row: S. Bettiker, C. West, M. A. Russell, B. Tuttle, C. Scholz. Second Row: C. Bruegman, J. Tanner, B. L. Brown, M. Napier, C. Beal, J. Jolly.

Third Row: R. Kunkel, L. Lonsbury, J. Frederick, J. Wolf, S. Nell, K. Coley. Fourth Row: G. Sir Louis, J. Smith, R. Wagar, J. Derhammer, B. Shade, A. Dale.

CHESS CLUB

Members of our invincible chess team study the board and pieces in action.

The main activity of the chess club concerns a board and thirty-two carved playing pieces. Each individual continually strives to increase his skill and knowledge of the game during numerous chess competitions. Ambitious members, under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Becker, play to present well-deserved letters to their champions. Their time is proved well-spent as one examines the scores of our victorious team.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS: N. Lorman, Secretary; B. Young, President; M. Brauckmann, Vice President; T. Allis, Treasurer; Miss Goldwood, Advisor.

The Highland chapter of the National Honor Society, under the guidance of Miss Goldwood, inducts new members each year. Judged on their scholarship, leadership, character, and service, qualified juniors and seniors are honored to become a part of this organization.

The 1971 induction ceremony began with the tapping of the new members. The club members and audience listened to Superintendent Harold White's interesting speech about the importance of high school records. Afterwards the twenty neophytes signed their names to the scroll of past and present members of Highland's National Honor Society and repeated its pledge.

Mrs. Tramonte and the home economics department provided delicious refreshments after the ceremony.

LATIN

The customs of Italy, past and present, are stepping stones for the Latin Club's activities. They sponsored Student Council's foster child and celebrated Christmas at a fun-filled party. Future plans include visiting a nursing home. The annual Latin Club picnic commemorates the end of the school year and the beginning of a new club under the able guidance of Mrs. Wolf.

PHOTO

Members of the new Photo Club harbor an interest in the art and science of photography. They learn to take clearer pictures and develop them under the guidance of Miss McNeil. These camera bugs enjoy shooting beautiful and unusual pictures of other students and school activities, and often catch a friend in a striking pose.

SOCIAL

God gave His children memory — that in life's garden there might be June roses in December.

HOMECOMING

Queen Celeste

Homecoming, 1970 began Friday night, October 23, as Queen Celeste and her court were escorted onto the field by their fathers. Facing the stands, they were introduced to the crowd. The pre-game festivities ended with the traditional crowning of the queen by Don Tomko and kisses from the co-captains.

A very exciting and memorable homecoming game was about to begin. Two groups of anticipating and hopeful fans and two very skillful and determined teams were prepared for the game. The mighty Hornets faced the Fireland Falcons in this year's most challenging Inland Conference contest.

A dazzling performance by the band and majorettes marked the half with a Highland lead at 8-6.

The tension mounted during the second half with the cheerleaders leading shouts of encouragement for the team. The last seconds of the game brought a final score of 14-14.

No Homecoming court could be more proud of their team!

DANCE

Homecoming dance Saturday evening is a fitting climax to the excitement of Homecoming festivities. Soft music, velvet dresses in an array of colors, and flowers are all a part of the nostalgia-filled atmosphere in the delightfully decorated gym which had been transformed into a hugh park with gardens. As a conclusion the court and Queen Celeste were presented and danced the Queen's dance.

PROM ACTIVITIES AND BANQUET 1971

"A TIME

Sunshine greeted those who played putt-putt golf while others of the Juniors and Seniors preferred to bowl or swim as the 1971 Prom began. Capping the activities was a buffet-style banquet located in a "castle," indicative of the Romeo and Juliet theme. "A Time for Us" became the password for all of the many Juniors who worked at waving the magic wand that transferred the gym into a mysterious medieval castle and garden. The next evening every girl's dream came true as her knight in shining armor escorted her to the dance. Long after the yellow and pink crepe streamers have fallen to the floor, many nostalgic memories will remain of these two days.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"TEN LITTLE INDIANS"

CAST — Front: G. Kufchak, N. Lorman, J. Roach, J. Moats, M. Mendoza, J. Cox, G. Sir Louis. Back: A. Bogdanski, G. Van Deusen, J. Cox, B. Smith.

An air of mystery and intrigue flavored this year's senior class play, "Ten Little Indians." An isolated island cabin and the lives of ten bewildered people are interwoven in a diabolical plot of insane justice.

A record's mysterious message, a strangely appropriate poem, and ten stuffed Indian dolls are the only clues to the real meaning of the visitors' invitations.

Suspicion and fear are gradually heightened as members of the group disappear.

Who is the killer? Why are we here? These are just some of the frenzied questions each person asks himself.

"Ten Little Indians" is a credit to all who performed, directed, and staged the production.

STAGE CREW — First Row: B. Young, D. Thompson, B. Hammond, I. Juris, T. Jackson. Second Row: J. Weidanz, M. A. Chodera, D. Chambers, T. Burkhead, S. Sherman. Third Row: M. Gaj, M. Siegfried, E. Duncan, J. McIlvried, S. Lundquist, M. A. Russell, K. Ewing.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE

The junior class proudly presents "Up the Down Staircase" under the direction of Mrs. Ludwig. The play is a real-life portrayal of a high school class. Plagued by potential dropouts, students skipping class, cheating, and a girl's crush on the principal, the teacher, Kathy Kyle, struggles to get through to her students.

The stage crew, cast, and director all deserve a fine round of applause for their delightful performance!

STAGE CREW — First Row: J. Derhammer, W. Brauckmann, M. Leveskas. Second Row: C. Brown, D. Purta, S. Vujevich. Third Row: D. Csontos, J. Gathagan, C. Pribish.

SPRING CONCERT

From the opening bars of "Liberty Bell" to the spine-tingling and haunting melody of "Exodus" the band, under Mr. Eckart, provided a variety of tunes including a cornet trio. The various vocal groups under Mr. Ruddock, rounded out the Spring Concert with a splash of sounds. Dressed in red, white, and blue, the Senior Ensemble performed a popular song and dance routine; while the Senior Choir, dressed in mod clothes, performed a melody of such pop tunes as "Bridge Over Troubled Waters."

TALENT SHOW

The highlight of the Talent Show, sponsored by the Drama Club and advisor Miss Chiaramonte, was "Rubber Ducky" as sung by Varsity H, while dramatic, gymnastic, and musical acts completed the star-studded cast.

MAY AWARDS

What hath this day deserved that it in golden letters should be set among the high tides in the calendar?

COMMENCEMENT 1971

The Sunday preceding Commencement, Baccalaureate, acts as a catalyst in preparing the Class of 1971 for the memory-filled days immediately ahead. Rev. Harold G. Winter presented the message to the graduating Seniors and their parents and friends at this non-denominational service in which Reverends Ribbe, Hart, and Father Kusiak also took part as representatives of neighboring churches. While special music was provided by the Chapel Choir, it is hoped that every Senior paused in this hectic, exciting moment in his life to prepare himself for his future role in America's development.

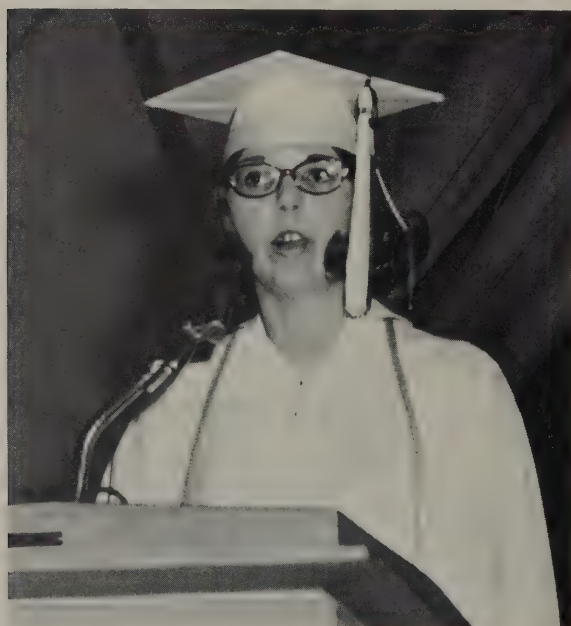

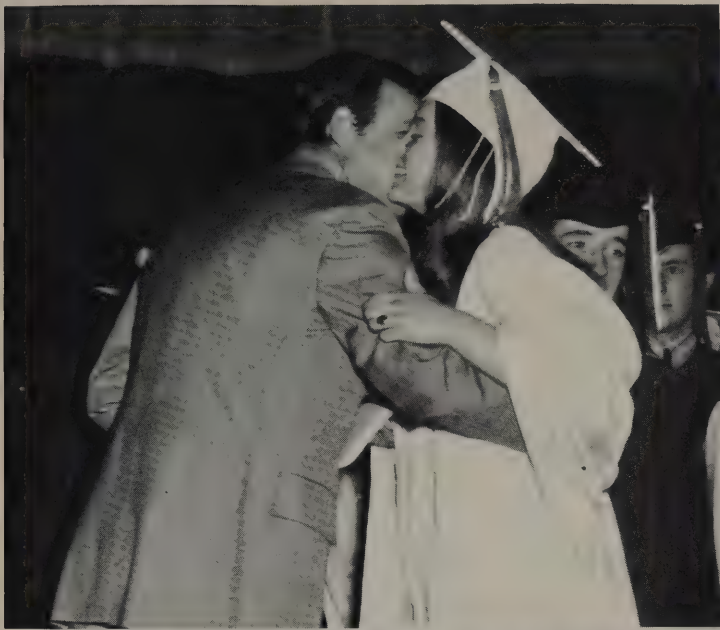

The nineteenth annual Commencement marked the first of the many milestones the 143 graduating Seniors will face throughout their lives. After a fun-filled week of practices, Wednesday night represented the pinnacle of the past 12 years of education. Decked in navy blue and white robes to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance" the class not only were presented their diplomas but special awards were also given to those Seniors who distinguished themselves for their contributions to the school. While Senator Ocasek addressed the assembly, members of the class itself took part in the proceedings. Scholastically, the Violet Richey Award went to the three valedictorians: Ida Juris, Nadine Lorman, and Virginia Schreiner, and to Tanner Allis who represented Highland in the biology and chemistry scholarship tests. The Activity Awards went to Jeff Cox and Jeannie Weidanz for their outstanding contributions to clubs and various organizations. The Highland Council Scholarship designated to an outstanding senior planning to go into teaching was received by Nadine Lorman. In athletics the Wade Ormsby Jr. Award, based on excellence in athletics, dramatics, scholarship, and social well-being, went to Jim Barron. The Charles Hardman Award, going to the best all-around senior athlete, was given to Don Tomko. The John Philip Sousa Award was presented to Lorie Glasia and Virginia Schreiner as outstanding bandmen while the Chopin Award went to Jeannie Weidanz for her contributions on the piano as a soloist and accompanist.

The Senior class has a right to be proud! This truly is "a time for us."

Dear Reader,

The last page of the yearbook represents the school year 1970-71. Like any final page, it is a summation of a great deal of hard work and effort that has been put out by all who were involved in the production of your annual.

We, the Staff, offer you this book in the sincere desire to report an accurate picture of H.H.S. We hope that in years to come, you will cherish memories as they are represented here.

As for the Seniors, we hope the book will be extra special, because it is evidence of that precious time of life — the flowering of youth into young adulthood.

For the rest of you, it is a glimpse into the future and a memory of the past.

Thanks for buying the Highlander!

Reneé,

It's hard to write in cursive, for me anyways, but I really think you're a great person. You've got what it takes to go far & I hope you do.

Good luck always & don't forget old high land high. Be good, & Be a legend,

Val

Reneé,
I hardly even know you but I hope we'll be great friends.
Lots of Luck

Marie affinger
